

CASTLETON BOAT CLUB

Spring 2023 History Lecture Series

92 South Main Street, Castleton NY 12033

Please RSVP to confirm seating. Call or text Laura (838) 219-0998

Join local historians and USCG Licensed Captains at the Castleton Boat Club for an informative and enjoyable series on Castleton and Hudson River history.

*Admission $10 per person. Dinner included – Catering by The Hill Restaurant in Castleton.
6-7 PM Dinner and Cocktails
7 PM Lecture in the Pavilion
Cash Bar.*

January
Friday
01/20/2023

The Gilded Age in Troy

Rensselaer County Historian, Kathy Sheehan brings the past to life with an insiders view of the popular TV series, "The Gilded Age". She discusses the challenges of filming in Troy and the historic landmarks that bring the show to life!

Kathy Knothe
Sheehan

February
Friday
02/24/2023

Where the Waters Meet

Otto Madsen looks at our history where the Mohawk and Hudson meet the Erie and Champlain Canals. The Upper Hudson Valley, City of Troy, Cohoes, West Troy and Northern Rensselaer County were shaped by commerce on these waters during the industrial age.

Otto Madsen

March
Friday
03/10/2023

The Many Lives of the Erie Canal

The Erie Canal linked upstate NY to the world. Join Professor of Historical Studies, Anthony Anadio as we look at the history of America's first Highway, how it changed over time and shaped the Capital District.

Anthony Anadio

April
Saturday
04/15/2023

Working boats of the Hudson: Present and Past

Will Van Dorp, creator of the popular site "Tugster" shares images and interesting background information on the ships we see working the Hudson River today, and the vessels that plied the waters a century ago.

Will Van Dorp

May TBD

An Evening With Len Tantillo - The Albany Waterway

Len Tantillo, accomplished marine artist and historian shares historical perspectives of the Dutch-Albany Waterfront and envisions new connections to the Hudson River.

Len Tantillo
& BJ Costello

